

READING – PROGRESSION OF SKILLS

|                      | EYFS  | YEAR 1  | YEAR 2   | YEAR 3   | YEAR 4  | YEAR 5   | YEAR 6  |
|----------------------|---|---|--|--|---|--|---|
|                      |   |   | Wor  | d Reading  |   |  |   |
| Phonics and decoding | RECEPTION: Read individual letters by saying the sounds for them.  Blend sounds into words, so that they can read short words made up of letter- sound correspondences.  Read some letter groups that each represent one sound and say sounds for them.  Read simple phrases and sentences made up of words with known letter-sound correspondences and, where necessary, a few | To apply phonic knowledge and skills as the route to decode words.  To blend sounds in unfamiliar wordsusing the GPCs that they have been taught.  To respond speedily, giving the correctsound to graphemes for all of the 40+ phonemes.  To read words containing taught GPCs.  To read words | To continue to apply phonic knowledge and skills as the route to decode words until automatic decoding has become embedded and reading is fluent.  To read accurately by blending the sounds in words that contain the graphemes taught so far, especially recognising alternative sounds for graphemes.  To accurately read most words of two | To use their phonic knowledge to decode quickly and accurately (may still need support to read longer unknown words).  To apply their growing knowledge of root words and prefixes, including in-, im-, il-, ir-, dis-, mis-, un-, re-, sub-, inter-, super-, anti-and auto-to begin to read aloud.*  To apply their | To read most words fluently and attempt to decode any unfamiliar words with increasing speed and skill. To apply their knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes/word endings to read aloud fluently.* | To read most words fluently and attempt to decode any unfamiliar words with increasing speed and skill, recognising their meaning through contextual cues.  To apply their growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes/ word endings, including -sion, -tion, -cial, - tial, -ant/-ance/-ancy, -ent/- ence/-ency, -able/-ably | To read fluently with full knowledge of all Y5/ Y6 exception words, root words, prefixes, suffixes/word endings* and to decode any unfamiliar words with increasing speed and skill, recognising their meaning through contextual cues. |

|                           | exception words.  ELG: Say a sound for each letter in the alphabet and at least 10 digraphs.  Read words consistent with their phonic knowledge by soundblending. Read aloud simple sentences and books that are consistent with their phonic knowledge, including some common exception words. | containing -s, - es, -ing, -ed and -est endings. To read words with contractions, e.g. I'm, I'll and we'll.                  | or more syllables. To read most words containing common suffixes.*   | growing knowledge of root words and suffixes/word endings, including- ation, -ly, -ous, -ture, - sure, -sion, -tion, -ssion and - cian, to begin to read aloud.* |  | and -ible/ibly, to readaloud fluently.*   |   |
|---------------------------|---|--|--|--|--|---|---|
| CommonException Words | RECEPTION:  Read a few common exception words matched to the school's phonic programme.  ELG: To read some common irregular words   | To read Y1 common exception words, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in words. | To read most Y1 and Y2 common exception words*, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word. | To begin toread Y3/Y4exceptionwords.*  | To read all Y3/Y4 exception words*, discussing the unusual correspondences between spelling and these occur in the word. | To read most Y5/Y6 exception words, discussing the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word.                                      | To read all Y5/Y6 exception words, discussing the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word. |
| Fluency                   | RECEPTION: Blend sounds into words, so that they can read short words made up of letter-sound correspondences.  | To accurately read texts that are consistent with their developing phonic knowledge, that do not require them to use other   | To read aloud books (closely matched to their improving phonic knowledge), sounding out  | word reading an  | nd fluency specifically. Anydevelopmenncy and reading speed is mo  | Is should be taking preceder focus on word reading shows to focus on word reading shows to focus on word reading shows the vixus fluenced through the Pixus fluenced Treader. | ould support the  |

|   | Read simple phrases and sentences made up of words with known letter-sound correspondences and, where necessary, a few exception words.  Re-read books to build up their confidence in word reading, their fluency and their understanding and enjoyment.  GLD: Read aloud simple sentences and | strategies to work out words. To reread texts to build up fluency and confidence in word reading. | unfamiliar words accurately, automatically and without undue hesitation.  To reread these books to build up fluency and confidence in word reading.  To read words accurately and fluently without overt sounding and blending, e.g. at over 90 |            |  |  |
|---|---|---|---|------------|--|--|
| Understandingand CorrectingInaccuracies | sentences and books that are consistent with their phonic knowledge, including some common exception words.  RECEPTION: Listen to and talk about stories to build familiarity and understanding.  | To check that a textmakes sense tothem as they readand to self- correct.              | words perminute, in age-appropriatetexts.   | prehension |  |  |
|   | Listen to and talk about selected non-fiction to develop a deep familiarity with  |   | or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher.  To check that the   |            |  |  |

|                                       | new knowledge and vocabulary.  ELG:  Demonstrate understanding of what has been read to them by retelling stories and narratives using their own words and recently introduced vocabulary.  |   | text makes sense to them as they read and to correct inaccurate reading.  |   |  |   |   |
|---------------------------------------|---|---|---|---|--|---|---|
| Comparing, Contrasting and Commenting | RECEPTION:  Compare and contrast characters from stories, including figures from the past.  Retell the story, once they have developed a deep familiarity with the text; some as exact repetition and some in their own words.  ELG:  Listen attentively and respond to what they hear with relevant questions, | To listen to and discuss a wide range of fiction, non-fiction and poetry at a level beyond that at which they can read independently.  To link what they have read or have read to them to their own experiences.  To retell familiar stories in increasing detail.  To join in with discussions about a text, taking turns | To participate in discussion about books, poems and other works that are read to them (at a level beyond at which they can read independently) and those that they can read for themselves, explaining their understanding and expressing their views.  To become increasingly familiar with and to retell a wide range of stories, fairy stories and traditional | To recognise, listen to and discuss a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks.  To use appropriate terminology when discussing texts (plot, character, setting). | To discuss and compare texts from a wide variety of genres and writers.  To read for a range of purposes.  To identify themes and conventions in a wide range of books.  To refer to authorial style, overall themes (e.g. triumph of good over evil) and features (e.g. greeting in letters, a diary written in | To read a wide range of genres, identifying the characteristics of text types (such as the use of the first person in writing diaries and autobiographies) and differences between text types.  To participate in discussions about books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, building on their own and others' ideas and | To read for pleasure, discussing, comparing and evaluating in depth across a wide range of genres, including myths, legends, traditional stories, modern fiction, fiction from our literary heritage and books from other cultures and traditions.  To recognise more complex themes in what they read (such as loss or heroism). |

| comments and actions when being read to and during whole class discussions and small group interactions.  | and listening towhat others say.To discuss thesignificance of titlesand events. | tales. To discuss the sequence of events in books and how items of information are   | prdenu                         | e first person orthe use ofpresentationalevices such asumbering andheadings).   | challenging viewscourteously.To identify mainideas drawn frommore than oneparagraph and to | To explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, including through formal  |
|---|---|--|--|---|--|--|
| Offer explanations for why things might happen, making use of recently introduced vocabulary from stories, non-fiction, rhymes and poems when appropriate.  Anticipate (where appropriate) key events in stories. |   | related. To recognise simple recurring literary language in stories and poetry.  To ask and answer questions about a text.  Tomake links between the text they are reading and other texts they have read (in texts that they can read independently). | stpcoToiofroor | o identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. o identify main ideas drawn om more than one paragraph nd summarise these. | summarise these. Torecommend texts to peers based on personal choice.  | presentations and debates, maintaining a focus on the topic and using notes where necessary.  To listen to guidance and feedback on the quality of their explanations and contributions to discussions and to make |
| Demonstrate understanding of what has been read to them by retelling stories and narratives using their own words and recently introduced vocabulary.   |   |  |  |   |  | improvements when participating in discussions.  To draw out key information and to summarise the main ideas in a text.  |

| Words in Context and Authorial Choice  RECEPTION: Learn new vocabulary.  Use new vocabulary throughout the day.  Retell the story, once they have developed a deep familiarity with the text; some as exact repetition and some in their own words.  Use new vocabulary in | To discuss word meaning and link new meanings to those already known | To discuss and clarify the meanings of words, linking new meanings to known vocabulary.  To discuss their favourite words and phrases. | To check that the text makes sense to them, discussing their understanding and explaining the meaning of words in context.  To discuss authors' choice of words and phrases for effect. | Discuss vocabulary used to capture readers' interest and imagination. | To discuss vocabulary used by the author to create effect including figurative language.  To evaluate the use of authors' language and explain how it has created an impact on the reader. | independently between statements of fact and opinion, providing reasoned justifications for their views.  To compare characters, settings and themes within a text and across more than one text.  To analyse and evaluate the use of language, including figurative language and how it is used for effect, using technical terminology such as metaphor, simile, analogy, imagery, style and effect |
|--|--|--|---|---|--|---|
|--|--|--|---|---|--|---|

|                       |  |  |  |
|-----------------------|------|--|------|
| Listen to and talk    |      |  |      |
| about selected        |      |  |      |
| non-fiction to        |      |  |      |
| develop a deep        |      |  |      |
| familiarity with      |      |  |      |
| new knowledge         |      |  |      |
| and vocabulary.       |      |  |      |
|                       |      |  |      |
| ELG:                  |      |  |      |
| Offer explanations    |      |  |      |
| for why things        |      |  |      |
| might happen,         |      |  |      |
| making use of         |      |  |      |
| recently              |      |  |      |
| introduced            |      |  |      |
| vocabulary from       |      |  |      |
| stories, non-fiction, |      |  |      |
| rhymes and poems      |      |  |      |
| when appropriate.     |      |  |      |
| when арргорнате.      |      |  |      |
|                       |      |  |      |
| Demonstrate           |      |  |      |
| understanding of      |      |  |      |
| what has been         |      |  |      |
| read to them by       |      |  |      |
| retelling stories     |      |  |      |
| and narratives        |      |  |      |
| using their own       |      |  |      |
| words and recently    |      |  |      |
| introduced            |      |  |      |
| vocabulary.           |      |  |      |
| Use and               |      |  |      |
| understand            |      |  |      |
| recently introduced   |      |  |      |
| vocabulary during     |      |  |      |
| discussions about     |      |  |      |
| stories, non-fiction, |      |  |      |
| rhymes and poems      |      |  |      |
| and during role       |      |  |      |
| play.                 |      |  |      |
| , ,                   |      |  |      |

| Inference and Prediction | ELG:  Offer explanations for why things might happen, making use of recently introduced vocabulary from stories, non-fiction, rhymes and poems when appropriate. Anticipate (where appropriate) key events in stories.   | To begin to make simple inferences. To predict what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far | To make inferences on the basis of what is being said and done. To predict what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far in a text.          | To ask and answer questions appropriately, including some simple inference questions based on characters' feelings, thoughts and motives.  To justify predictions using evidence from the text. | To draw inferences from characters' feelings, thoughts and motives that justifies their actions, supporting their views with evidence from the text.  To justify predictions from details stated and implied.   | To draw inferences from characters' feelings, thoughts and motives.  To make predictions based on details stated and implied, justifying them in detail with evidence from the text | To consider different accounts of the same event and to discuss viewpoints (both of authors and of fictional characters). To discuss how characters change and develop through texts by drawing inferences based on indirect clues. |
|--------------------------|--|--|--|---|---|---|---|
| Poetry and Performance   | RECEPTION:  Engage in story times.  Retell the story, once they have developed a deep familiarity with the text; some as exact repetition and some in their own words.  Learn rhymes, poems and songs.  Sing in a group or on their own, increasingly matching the pitch and following the melody. | To recitesimplepoems byheart.  | To continue to build up a repertoire of poems learnt by heart, appreciating these and reciting some with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear. | To prepare and perform poems and play scripts that show some awareness of the audience when reading aloud.  To begin to use appropriate intonation and volume when reading aloud.               | To recognise and discuss some different forms of poetry (e.g. free verse or narrative poetry).  To prepare and perform poems and play scripts with appropriate techniques (intonation, tone, volume and action) to show awareness of the audience when reading aloud. | To continually show an awareness of audience when reading out loud using intonation, tone, volume and action.   | To confidently perform texts (including poems learnt by heart) using a wide range of devices to engage the audience and for effect.   |

|             | Develop storylines in  |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|-------------|------------------------|--------------|--------------------|-------------------|-------------------|----------------------|--------------------|
|             | their pretend play.    |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | aren precena piay.     |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | GLD:                   |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | GLD.                   |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             |                        |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | Demonstrate            |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | understanding of       |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | what has been read     |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | to them by retelling   |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | stories and            |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | narratives using their |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | own words and          |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | recently introduced    |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | vocabulary.            |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             |                        |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | Make use of props      |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | and materials when     |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | role playing           |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | characters in          |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | narratives and         |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | stories.               |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             |                        |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | Invent, adapt and      |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | recount narratives     |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | and stories with their |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | peers and their        |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | teacher.               |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | Perform songs,         |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | rhymes, poems and      |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | stories with others,   |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | and (when              |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | appropriate) try to    |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
|             | move in time to music. |              |                    |                   |                   |                      |                    |
| Non-Fiction | GLD:                   | To recognise | To recognise that  | To retrieve and   | To use all of the | To use knowledge of  | To retrieve,       |
|             | Offer                  | that non-    | non- fiction books | record            | organisational    | texts and            | record and         |
|             |                        | fiction      | are often          | information       | devices available | organisation devices | present            |
|             | explanations           | books are    | structured in      | from non- fiction | within a non-     | to retrieve, record  | information from   |
|             | for why things         | often        | different ways.    | texts.            | fiction text to   | and discuss          | non-fiction texts. |
|             | might happen,          | Orten        | uniciciit ways.    | icais.            | Hetion text to    | and discuss          | Hon-nedon texts.   |

| recently vocabu discus stories, rhymes | ing use of ecently roduced cabulary n stories, n-fiction, mes and ms when ropriate. se and lerstand v introduced ulary during sions about non-fiction, and poems ing role play |  | retrieve, record and discuss information.  To use dictionaries to check the meaning of words that they have read. | information fromfiction and non-fiction texts. | To use non-fiction materials for purposeful information retrieval (e.g. in reading history, geography and science textbooks) and in contexts where pupils are genuinely motivated to find out information (e.g. reading information leaflets before a gallery or museum visit or reading a theatre programme or review). |
|--|--|--|---|--|--|
|--|--|--|---|--|--|